Exodus 30:4: And you shall make for the altar of incense a golden censer, in which there shall be a fire continually burning.

Mk 1:48 Jesus said to him, "I will; be it to you." And he touched him and immediately the leprosy left him.

Mk 7:32-37 Jesus called his disciples to him and gave them permission to go into the Decapolis. They went and entered a house in Capernaum. The local people brought to Jesus a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment. They begged Jesus to touch him. Jesus touched the man's eyes and hands. Then looking up to heaven, he said, "Ephphatha!" (which means, "Be opened!"). At once the man's hearing was restored, his speech impediment was removed, and he began to speak plainly.

Mk 10:46-52 Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho when a blind man followed him along the road, shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many people rebuked him, telling him to be quiet, but he shouted all the louder, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stopped and called the man over. "Your faith has made you well," he said. Immediately the man's eyes opened and he could see again.
