

THE RICHEST JEWELS

AND OTHER CHRISTIAN STORIES FOR CHILDREN

Edited by Kenneth D. Macleod

THE RICHEST JEWELS

How did the prince know that Hans really could be trusted?
What did Sydney think his mother must give him?
Read this book and you will find the answers to these questions,
and to lots of others.

You will learn lessons from Mother Puss and her kittens,
from ants and spiders, and even from dirty rags!

There are Bible stories too, of course, and lots of poems.
This book can be read to young children,
and when they are a little older they can read it themselves.
Its pages are full of stories to hold their attention.
It is illustrated with many attractive drawings.

ISBN 0 902506 33 1

Also available in this series for children:

The Perfect Mirror

A beautifully produced book with excellent print size, fine art work and good gospel teaching — The Banner of Truth

Also available for young people:

Gospel Gleanings for Young People
Pages from the Past

FREE PRESBYTERIAN PUBLICATIONS

133 Woodlands Road, Glasgow G3 6LE